Re: United States v. Veronica Hollman, 24 CR 353 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

I represent Ms. Hollman in the above-referenced case. Ms. Hollman is currently serving her prison sentence at Danbury FCI. Her family is requesting that her passport be returned to them. Because the surrender of her passport was a condition of her pretrial release, I am informed that a Court order for the passport to be returned is necessary. I therefore write this letter to request that the Court order that Ms. Hollman's passport can be released to her family. Neither the government nor pretrial objects to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

John P. Buza
